While Marek attended this school, Marek's Parents would speak to him only in French on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and would speak only in Polish on Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturday and Sunday which made his home life fascinating.

(2) 1962 - 1965 = Polish school, Fawley Court (Divine Merch College), Henley in Thames, Oxfordshire. Marek's Father Leszek was ill from attending French Lycee

(3) 1965, following the death of his Father Leszek on 10 February 1965, Marek and his Mother Kasia were invited to visit her Polish relatives (Wojcicki) in Grodno, Virginia in the United States. There Marek attended a local school for just 3 months before he and his Mother Kasia decided to return to London in late 1965.

(Most Sundays, Olga inserted many Polish children clicking driving together)

Olga Zeromska was a very close friend of Marek's Mother Kasia, visiting the Rencki Family every year for Christmas, and regular attending dinner at Rencki's Home or at her own, & driving with Rencki Family (just Mother Kasia and Marek) to Southern Naples & Rome, Italy in July 1967 - very delighted month.

Sadly, Olga Zeromska became very ill in 1995, and was which time she was sent to Polish Penrhos Home (North Wales, A497 Road) where Olga Zeromska eventually died in 15 September 2006 at 89 age.
